UPSC CIVIL SERVICES · GS PAPER I · MODERN INDIAN HISTORY · CONSOLIDATION (SEQ 25) · BUILT FROM TOPICS 1–24

The Freedom Struggle Metro, 1757–1947

Six lines, seven fare zones, one destination. Ride any line end to end — or read straight down a year to see every line at once.

103 stations 6 lines · 7 zones

Every station maps to a completed topic (Seq numbers in the interactive version). Interchanges = big shifts.

INTERCHANGE STATIONS — WHERE THE LINES MEET (shaded gold above)

⦿ 1857–58

Revolt and Crown rule: resistance peaks, and the state rebuilds itself around new allies

⦿ 1905–06

Partition of Bengal: Swadeshi nationalism and the Muslim League are born together

⦿ 1919–20

Rowlatt, Jallianwala, dyarchy, Non-Cooperation, AITUC: the mass phase begins

⦿ 1942–43

Cripps fails, Quit India erupts, the INA forms, Bengal starves

⦿ 1946–47

RIN mutiny to Partition: every line converges on 15 August

HOW TO RIDE IT Ride one line for a thematic answer (the Resistance line is the 2019 "culmination of rebellions" answer). Read down an interchange for a turning-point answer (1919 = Rowlatt + dyarchy + Non-Cooperation + AITUC). Cover the years and name each station to self-test.
